DISASTERS FROM STORMS.

A PRAIRIE GALE SWEEPS OVER THE ICE OF LAKE ERIE.

Many Fishermen Believed to Have Perished—Terrible Hardships Endured by a Party Who Were Caught in the Storm—Two Bodies Found—A Number of Lumbermen Reported Drowned—A Steamer Sunk at the Wharf—The Wake of the Southern Expedition—Building Damaged.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Feb. 27.—(Special.)—All fishermen considered, the last days have been days of the season for the men who make a living during the winter by fishing through the ice. Some thirty men, it was known late last night, had been caught in the storm of wind which swept over the plains the surface of the ice like a thousand furies. Rescuing parties were organized and the shores for several miles up patrolled, but none of the men could be found. There were many holes in the ice, and the great fear was that, being unable to withstand the force of the storm, they would be swept into these holes and drowned. Rescuing parties have been out all day, and tonight all but two Buffalo fishermen are accounted for. The others, it seems, were separated from their companions after the wind experienced its fiercest force, and, unable to reach the shore miles above the city, had found shelter for the night at neighboring houses of farmers. The two missing fishermen are Thomas Cody and John Daly. Besides these men the bodies of two others were reported last night to have been found at Lake View, five miles above this city. The fishermen are among voyagers, and it is possible that they too had gone fishing and are lost.

A Storm at Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 27.—Early Saturday morning the wind commenced to blow here in a gale, coming from the northeast. It continued to blow a perfect hurricane at intervals all day, reaching the height of its fury about 10 o'clock this evening. Many accidents are reported, principally minor ones. Some chimneys were blown down, and a number of signs were blown down, making debris from five to ten feet deep, and effectually stopping all traffic. The Ohio River is falling rapidly. Telegraph and telephone lines are severely damaged. Reports from the country to the south of Shelbyville City and a Michigan City train is blockaded in the snow-drifts. Reports from Shelbyville to the west report that the storm was terrific. The gale commenced to blow in that city at 2 o'clock this morning, and by 4 o'clock the streets were impassable. Trees were blown down, and the roofs of many houses were blown off. The storm was the worst ever known in that section of the country. Reports from Shelbyville to the east say that the storm was not so severe there as in this city. Reports from Simpsonville, Eminence, Pewee Valley, Crestwood, Prospect, Anchorage, Glenview, Middletown, Fern Creek, Jeffersontown, Okolona, Valley Station, Fisherville, Eastwood, Buckner, Westport, Harrods Creek, Carrollton, Madison, Ind., and other points report that the storm was severe, but that no damage was done. Reports from Bardstown, Shelbyville, Lebanon, Taylorsville, Mount Eden, Shepherdsville, Elizabethtown, Brandenburg, Hardinsburg, Cloverport, Hawesville, Owensboro, Henderson, Hopkinsville, Bowling Green, Glasgow, Scottsville, Franklin, Russellville, Elkton, Guthrie, Princeton, Eddyville, Paducah, Mayfield, Hickman, Fulton, Columbus, Clinton, Cairo, Metropolis, Shawneetown, Harrisburg, Marion, Carmi, Mount Vernon, Centralia, Salem, Vincennes, Washington, Paoli, Corydon, Jeffersonville, New Albany, Madison, Lawrenceburg, Aurora, Rising Sun, Vevay, Versailles, Greensburg, Shelbyville, Franklin, Columbus, Seymour, Madison, Ind., and Louisville will be found in other dispatches.

A Big Freight.

The Chief Arbiter of the Boston Truck War Forms a New Organization.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Feb. 27.—(Special.)—Some new details for next season, growing out of the rupture in the once happy family, the United Canals, which closed an engagement here last night, were agreed upon at a late hour. Harris Moore, W. H. Hathcock, Tom Earl, and E. C. Carpenter have all within a week announced that this year their fast and well-known steamers will be under the management of W. H. Fuller. Heather Bradley will also retire. Miss Huntington has already given The Lambs will not retire, they having a very successful season, but have a long engagement in view. The change of management on the part of Fuller would not have been made, but for the fact that the Boston Truck Company, which has been operating the Erie Canal, has been forced to the wall, and the former has had the entire business of the canal to himself. Fuller will not, however, be without competition, as Hathcock has taken the Erie Canal, which has been operated by the Boston Truck Company, and will run it in connection with the Lake Shore Canal. Fuller will run his boats through to Boston, and Hathcock will run his to Albany, where they will be transferred to the Hudson River Canal. The change will be a big one for the boatmen, as it will do away with the present system of transferring freight at Albany, and will also do away with the present system of transferring freight at Buffalo

AN EPIDEMIC IN ILLINOIS.

An Amendment to the Reserve Bank Bill Suggested—The Panthers Kick Bismarck.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 27.—[Special.]—The Chevalier of Germany has suggested to Representative George E. Adams an amendment to the Bank Reserve bill, which is on the Senate calendar ready to be acted upon by Senator Allison. Cashier Tomlinson thinks that instead of one-half the bank reserve remaining in the custody of the reserve cities being kept 30 per cent in the primary reserve city, such as Chicago, it would be wise to require the Controller of the Treasury, therefore would be enough. This would still enable the country banks to keep 5 per cent in their own vaults. Mr. Adams is of the opinion that Chicago would be better suited with the change. The proposition has not been acted upon by the Senate Committee on the Judiciary upon the Bank bill. The possible dangers under Federal authority subject to be the source of the injuries that may appear to be removed by the Constitution, and that the proper remedy for a grave and serious emergency in Congress of power resulting in the States. The report discusses at great length the relations of the General to the State Governments and the rights reserved to each under the Constitution, and says:

Congress has power over coins, the issuance of bills of credit and paper money, and the passage of laws for the punishment of offenses against the United States. It has power to regulate commerce among the States, and to make all laws necessary and proper for carrying into execution the foregoing powers. The States are prohibited from coining money, emitting bills of credit, making anything but gold and silver coin a tender in payment of debts, or passing any law impairing the obligation of contracts. Congress has power to provide for the general welfare of the United

JUDGE WILSON TO RETURN TO CHICAGO.

Judge Wilson to Be a Candidate to Succeed Scott on the Illinois Supreme Court—Epidemic of Diphtheria in Champaign County—The Butler Explosion Case Further Postponed—Fire Insurance Cases from the Standard to Collect.

JUDGE WILSON A CANDIDATE.—Matters were talked over last night in THE TRIBUNE office which would probably be conducive to Judge Scott on the Supreme bench of the State of Illinois. While it is too early for formal announcement, yet the friends of Judge J. Wilson of Lincoln understand that he desires to be a candidate, and will be a candidate. Judge Wilson has been Judge of the Circuit Court [illegible] and is now one of the Judges of the Appellate Court. He is a Democrat, served the country for three years during the Rebellion, and has made quite a favorable impression in the district.

CHURCH DEDICATED.—The New Church of Lemont, Ill., has for the last three days been celebrating its semi-centennial anniversary. The celebration began with a grand concert Friday evening, at which there was a large [illegible] present, including many fancy dressed young and unattached lady visitors. A number of eminent pastors being with us, we have had the church crowded each day and each night of the week. The church is a handsome edifice, and is now entirely paid for. It has been principally erected by the labors of Engineer Tom Dick.

THE WEATHER REPORT.—It is believed that the office which resulted in the arrest of the United Brethren of Ill. Schoolhouse at Ill. at Peoria, Ill., is a fact not to be denied. A member of the firm who had been in Washington since the arrest was made, and would change materials, which you, will confirm and will be tested for the removal of the offices and will be held before Judge Bridges.

ESCAPED OR DISCHARGED.—Diphtheria of a malignant type prevails in some neighborhoods in the western part of Champaign County, Illinois. At Sydney, northeast of Urbana, [illegible] and four more are in a dangerous condition. Joseph Rogers's [illegible] has been taken down and [illegible] Mary Ann Rogers was carried to the grave on Wednesday last. Many others are similarly afflicted.

THE BUTLER EXPLOSION.—The body of Henry Ford, who was murdered by John Phelps near Salem a few weeks since, has been exhumed and a post-mortem held. Not being content to submit that it was removed that the defense could see the proof, but the inquisition showed that the fault was proved to the guilty.

RAILROAD CONTRACTS.—The Chicago has been making to the country, near Elizabeth for some time. The country is the most fatal to the party part of the county, where a number of farmers have lost nearly all their hogs.

GRASSHOPPER FALLS & TOPEKA.—Last fall a young lunk broke into the post-office at Ashland, about ninety miles south of Miss City, and had not been arrested, although considerable was made, until last week, when the manager was placed in the hands of a Deputy Sheriff, when the United States Marshal [illegible] to under the arrest. Gov. Cleaves of Maine and the Democratic members of the Council are at last said to be likely to result in the "hanging out" of the nominations made by the Governor.

Out of twenty-five votes reported by telegraph to Gladstone's, Chicago and London City stock commercial gains in the net sum of eighty-five[illegible] during the week.

Congress will adjourn next Friday, and a desperate effort will be made by anti-Senate to dispose of the pending appropriation bills, which are to take precedence. [illegible]

Gustav P. Cleveland, Commissioner of Patents, whose resignation is to take effect April 1, is thought will be nominated by the Democratic State Convention next Tuesday for Justice of the Supreme Court of Michigan.

Prices on the London Stock Exchange for [illegible] the last week were firm, and even brought out the week, but the advance was slow and hesitating, the entire being felt entitled to the maintenance of peace. Reforms in home trade, foreign securities, and English railway securities was accordingly limited. In American railroad securities activity was created. Saturday's prices closed strong, despite Pacific railroads, which were dull under the Senate's resolution to examine their accounts with the Government. There was a decline on the Paris and Berlin bourses.

The Ohio Legislature was polled on the Presidential and Gubernatorial preferences of the members of both parties. The Republicans stood: Sherman, 46; Foster, 10; unconcerned, 5. Democrats: Cleveland, 40; Thurman, 5; non-committal, 5; unlikely to have Cleveland, 5. Gov. Foraker is the almost unanimous choice of the Republicans for a re-nomination, while the Democrats are divided between Congressmen Campbell and Paige and Gen. T. C. Powell. A few favor Thurman, Geddes, McKinnon, and Wilcox.

Cherry Coke Wright has acted very properly in placing the election of gate-keeper on the low-grade[illegible] basis. In view of future possible contingencies it would be encouraging against public decency to have the election of the jurors entirely in a matter of a member of the County Board. The party may be too insistent for such an important duty, and would be liable to be injured on by extreme pressure interested in the outcome of the next panel. It is only when the business elephant complete control of the board that the work of selection has been carried on in the County Board room. Before that time it was carried on in the Clerk's office, as it ought to have been. The change has surprised to say the least of it. It was simple, for some reason might get into the box, accidentally, of course, out of the hands of the persons of neutrality and [illegible] Commissioners, or, in moments of procrastination, from the hands of those who were busily absorbed in weighty opinions for the later amusement of county officers. Mr. Wright's head is good.

THE DEFENSE OPPOSITION.

[illegible] has been making preparations for an early spring trade, but Nature seems to have other plans. Do our business men do anything or that way, it is of no use for them to have their spring undertakings against blizzards and zero temperature. The capitalists of the business community will therefore have to be patient until it shall please Nature to be a little more civil to us.

Among the signs of this early movement is the large outflow of money from the banks. The banks of the New York associated banks now owe over $11,000,000 larger than last year at this time, while the legal-tender loan has fallen off $10,000,000 and the specie $5,000,000. The surplus reserve is $7,000,000, against $25,000,000 last year. The shipments of currency to country points from this city have been large of late, for this time of year, and New York, which a few weeks ago was getting in currency, has recently been drawn on to a considerable extent. These movements, coming in February, are significant. The money market is not deranged by any means, but it is three times more forthcoming, and if the reserves of the banks continue to run off in the way they have to the last few days much or no new business will be among the probabilities.

Astonished by the reaction of last spring, employers here have taking special pains to meet the demands of their men in advance of any actual outbreak, and the labor situation is generally clear of clouds. The situation is generally clear of clouds. The situation is generally clear of clouds. The

SUMMARY OF A DOZEN OF CURRENT POLITICAL STORIES.

Gladstone's Declaration Regarding the Adoption of the Liberal Party's Home Rule Resolutions—Parnell Not Present—Explains How Personally He Is the Master of Gladstone's Policy—Power to Force a Dissolution—A Great Demonstration.

LONDON, Feb. 27.—[New York Tribune's Special Cable.]—While the situation on the Continent steadily improves, political prospects in England show no signs of amelioration. Mr. Chamberlain's latest letter to the people, and especially to a manifesto, is not calculated to allay the fears of those who believe that the policy of Mr. Gladstone and the Liberal party cannot but result in the disruption of the Liberal party, if not in worse evils. The tone of this letter is more accommodating than anything that Mr. Chamberlain has published since the Liberal party broke to bits on the Irish question. The party, he declares, will remain united and impotent until acceptance of the Home Rule scheme is a plank in the Liberal platform. He roundly accuses Gladstone of disloyalty, and severely rebukes Mr. Chamberlain's advocacy of home rule, which the country has rejected must be set aside and some plausible bond on which Liberals and Liberal-Unionists can agree, found. Mr. Chamberlain says majority of the Liberals from office in the country is overwhelmingly and unanimously in favor of home rule. Mr. Chamberlain says he will not be a party to any arrangement which does not secure the unity of the Liberal party. He declares that the Irish members must be excluded from Westminster, and that Ireland must be governed by a separate legislature. Mr. Chamberlain's letter is generally regarded as a step backward. It is thought that the Irish members will not accept the terms offered them, and that the Liberal party will not accept the terms offered by Mr. Chamberlain. The latter's letter is considered as a declaration of war against Mr. Gladstone and the leaders of the Liberal party. The Irish members are not disposed to accept the terms offered by Mr. Chamberlain, and
